THE TRAIL OF CARL SCHURZ IN OHIO.

Chicago Tribune.

The trail of Carl Schurz in Ohio is clearly apparent in the election returns. It may be traced with unerring accuracy from place to place by observing where the Republicans are the largest gainers. He was sent into Ohio by the Democrats, not to discuss any political issues or principles, but to abuse and vilify Blaine.

He was furnished with a stock of charges in the rough which he was to circulate and impress upon his hearers, especially the Germans, by his unrivaled powers of distortion and sophistry. He was employed to fasten lies upon Blaine; to change unfounded suspicions into apparent realities; to invent slanders and poison Blaine by subtle and venomous trickery of words; and to induce the Germans to believe them. He was loaded to the muzzle with calumnies and intendances, and he industriously sought to carry out the mission for which he was hired by Seven-Mule Barren.

Schurz spoke twenty-two times in fifteen cities, two hours at a "spoke," both in English and German, and his "spokes" were widely circulated at great expense to the Democratic campaign fund. He was sent into the "conscience" section of Ohio for English work; into the German section for Teutonic work, and the net result of his mission is set forth in the following tabulated form. Carl Schurz spoke—

3 times in Cincinnati
4 times in Cleveland
2 times in Toledo
2 times in Youngstown
2 times in Dayton
1 time in Canton
1 time in Zanesville
1 time in Sandusky City
1 time in Akron
1 time in Warren (county)
1 time in Lorain (county)
1 time in Springfield
1 time in Athens (county)
1 time in Steubenville

22 "spokes." Total Republican gains, 17,880. These gains are estimated on last year's returns, when the Democrats did not have his distinguished assistance, and it will be observed that in four chief German centres—Cincinnati, Cleveland, Toledo and Dayton—the gains are largest, showing the invaluable character of his services among his own countrymen as a professional reactor.

The first bottle relieved her very much, and the second bottle has absolutely cured her. She has not had so good health for thirty years." Try Dr. King's New Discovery. BEFORE AND AFTER.

No Democrat ever seriously thought of carrying Ohio for Cleveland. It never entered into the calculation. -Review, Oct. 17.

LET US SEE ABOUT THAT.

Let us see about that. Here is what their candidate for Vice President and their Governor of Ohio said only last Saturday to a correspondent of the New York Herald:

Governor Hendricks came in this evening, and states that, in his experience of a half century in political campaigns, he never saw such demonstrations of popular approval and endorsement as are accorded the Democrats this year in Ohio. He is a native of this State, and participated in its campaigns when a young man, and, with the exception of a few years, has always been drawn over from Indiana to take part in them. He says, in brief, that there is no more doubt about Ohio and Indiana going Democratic than about Kentucky and Delaware.

Governor Hendricks spent the day here at headquarters, and had gone over the third and last poll just completed. He says it shows that the Democratic majority will be equal to that of last year, when he was elected by 13,000, and that, having been on the stump ever since his return from Maine and meeting people and local committeemen in almost every county of the State during the past two months, he gives it as his unqualified judgment that the Democrats will carry the State by double the majority of last year.

In view of these ante election declarations by the great heads of the party, and the ludicrous and frantic efforts of the Review to make false believe they were lying, the bitter remark of "Judge" Clark gains fresh force: "We are a set of blanked fools."

The Review, like Democrats generally, can find words in which to express its contempt for John I. Davidson and Powell Clayton. They all hate and despise the men who prevent them from carrying out their nefarious schemes to defeat the will of the people.

It is not to be wondered at that the ex-rebel soldier who spoke at the tabernacle yesterday devoted a good part of his remarks to an attempt to prove that if the prohibition movement did result in the election of the Democratic ticket it would not be such a bad thing after all. Mr. Christman has a right to be a Democrat if he wants to be - as good a right to help that party in the prohibition ranks as he had to do the same thing in the rebel army, but it would be far more creditable to him to do so openly than in the manner he has chosen. People always think more of the bold highwayman than they do of the petty sneak thief who dodges around in the dark.

A HINT FROM CARTER HARRISON.

Special dispatch to the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

MARION, ILL., Oct. 14. - Carter Harrison is not awakening the enthusiasm in this part of the State that was expected of him. He stopped at the Essex House in this city after the arrival of this morning's train, and at 8:30 left the hotel alone with grip in hand, and boarded a special train of one coach and three cabooses on the L. and St. L., in which there was a solitary passenger as it reached this city. Going to Charleston there were about half a dozen aboard, one a Republican and another a Butler man. Carter was as windy as a cyclone, and amused the occupants of the car by his incoherent talk. He said: "Of course Grover Cleveland had a son by Maria Halpin; no one denies it, but the Democrat who would not vote for him on that account is a d d knave." At Charleston the glo club of eight persons again greeted the party, and the train sped on to Paris with its thin crowd.

THE YOUNG VOTERS.

General Stewart L. Woodford, of New York, that gallant soldier and brilliant orator, spoke at Buffalo, recently, and made one of the most eloquent and pathetic appeals to young voters that has yet been heard in the campaign. He said:

Did you ever think that the boys who were cradled when the guns were sounding at Fort Sumter, and during that terrible fiery summer of 1864 would cast their first ballot in this coming November? I would that my voice could reach every young man in Buffalo who this fall votes for the first time. In 1861, when your father signed the roll as a soldier, and went back home to bid mother good bye, she held you up for the last time. Perhaps that father or mother came back, and, during the long, long nights that your mother watched and prayed, the burden of her prayer was that father and republic might both be saved. Oh, boy! stand this hour for that old party which gave you your home and country.

Latest Returns From the Ohio and West Virginia State Elections.

An Appeal to the Friends of Clean Politics - Publishing Rally - Their Vote in Ohio.

In the Neighborhood of Fourteen Thousand.

COLUMBUS, O., October 17. - Returns are being received from Carroll, Medina and Cuyahoga Counties. Of these already in full view of the election. From indications the Republican plurality will be in the neighborhood of 14,000. The Democrats concede 12,000. The talk of throwing out the vote of Hamilton County is all moonshine. The returns may be heard to speak of it was Hamilton County Republican, who was angry at the turn of the election. It may be set down that nothing of the kind will be attempted. Governor Hendricks does not countenance such a scheme, as it would not affect the result in any particular.

In regard to Congress there are no new developments. The returns from the Eleventh District are incomplete, although the election of Hart is still claimed by the Republican Committee. The returns from Carroll County show a Republican majority of 775, and Cuyahoga County a Republican majority of 1,700. The Republicans claim that results in Monroe County, where J. D. Taylor, whose opponent is General Warner, they do not concede Blaisdell's election over Hart.

Chaotic State of West Virginia Returns.

WHEELING, W. VA., October 17. - There never was an election in this State after which the returns came so slowly and so unsatisfactorily. Returns have not been received from thirteen counties, which give a net Republican gain over Jackson, Democratic candidate for Governor, of 1877. Estimates have been received from the remainder of the State, showing a net Republican gain of 2,000 over the Greenback-Republican ticket of 1880. The net Republican gain in the nine counties show a Republican gain of 1,146 over Jackson, and a Republican gain of 498 over the basis used by the Democrats.

Keenness and complete returns from thirty-two counties give a net Democratic gain of 2,383, a Republican gain of 8,781 over Jackson (Dawson) for Governor. Giving majorities to simply guess work. There is absolutely nothing, on which an intelligent estimate can be fixed. As an instance of the confusion of the returns, the nine counties show a Republican gain of 1,146 over Jackson, and a Republican gain of 498 over the basis used by the Democrats.

Andrews-Demsey.
The marriage of Mr. Horace E. Andrews, of Norwalk, Ohio, and Miss Laura O. Demsey was celebrated last evening at the home of the bride's mother at Warrensburg, Rev. W. H. Davis, of the Methodist church, officiating. The bride is the younger sister of Dr. C. F. Demsey, of Warrensburg, and the groom is a son of Mr. L. M. Andrews, formerly editor of the old Missouri-Tribune, this city. Mr. Andrews is a graduate of the Decatur High School, and was formerly connected with the Republican office. He is now a practicing attorney at Norwalk, and is doing well. The Demsey dwelling was very charmingly decorated for the interesting occasion, the couple standing beneath a floral horse shoe when the ceremony was spoken. The bride was attired in a beautiful dress of brown silk, trimmed with embezzled velvet; the ornaments were diamonds and natural flowers. Dr. and Mrs. Demsey provided a beautiful wedding repast.

Mr. Andrews and bride left for Ohio last night.

Crowd Quickly Seated.
The other day Officer Hartley arrested Horace Davenport on a charge of hauling goods without paying the required duty license, $5. The case came up before Justice Curtis this forenoon, when it was promptly dismissed, Mr. Mills refusing to prosecute. It was explained to the court that Mr. Davenport had done hauling for Rev. H. W. Trueblood, of the United Brethren church, but that Davenport had made no charge for the service. It was also shown that members of Mr. Davenport's family are members of the church and that he did the hauling out of courtesy to the clergyman. Therefore the one was discharged, and Mr. Davenport and his attorney, Mr. Buckingham, departed.

Owing to the inability of the Romany Rye company to reach Evansville in time to play to-night, they have concluded to remain here and will produce this superb play with all the fine scenery, at greatly reduced prices. All the lower floor, 50 cents; gallery, 25 cents. No one should miss this rare opportunity to see the now famous "Romany Rye." No extra charge for reserved seats. Go to-night.

It was noticed yesterday that the hide-bound democrats of the city gave the prohibition meeting the encouragement of their presence, and furthermore, they stood about on the street corners and in stores, saying that the third party movement was a big thing and ought to catch many votes from the Republicans. The democrats will encourage any scheme that will cut down the Republican vote and give them a chance to get in power.

BLAINE AND LOGAN CLUB.
To-night, (Friday, Oct. 17), the regular meeting of the Blaine and Logan Club will be held at headquarters. Business of very considerable importance will be transacted, and a general attendance is desired. The committee appointed to make preparations for the Logan demonstration on the 24th are expected to make report to-night.

At the annual session of the Grand Lodge of Ancient York Masons, held at Springfield this week, Mr. Huston Singleton, of Decatur Lodge, was elected grand lecturer for the state; Joseph W. Moore, of Chicago, was chosen grand master.

The funeral of the late William Bushford took place from the family residence at No. 730 North Church street, this forenoon, in the presence of a large company of friends. Dr. Voeblough, of the Baptist church, officiating. The deceased was for many years in charge of the Wabash target at the Church street crossing of that road.

The Republicans had a lively and enthusiastic meeting at Marion last night. There was a brilliant parade of the marching club, in which there was a number of young ladies. The speaking was held in a large hall, which was crowded. The speakers were W. C. Johns and E. P. Vail, each speaking about an hour. Many were unable to gain entrance to the hall. The Marion Republicans are united and all will be at the polls on the 4th of November.

The regular meeting of the Blaine and Logan Club will be held at headquarters to-night. Let all members be present. Matters of local importance will come before the meeting.

SIXTEEN years of continuous suffering had rendered Mr. Wm. S. Fleming well-nigh hopeless, but Athaphora came to the rescue. Hear him: "For seven years I have suffered with rheumatism, and for four months I was confined to the house, five weeks of which time I was helpless. Athaphora was recommended to me by Rev. S. W. Davis, and the best of what might be a longer narrative is, I am entirely well and about my business after using two bottles."

The appearance of Hale Johnson, candidate for attorney general, at a prohibition meeting late yesterday afternoon, caused some enthusiasm, led by Smith.

Third Party Meeting.
The prohibitionists held their big meeting of the campaign at the tabernacle yesterday afternoon and last night, with fair attendance in attendance, particularly at night. The G. A. R. band made a parade and played several airs in front of the building, and inside Thos. A. Fritchett served as chairman, D. L. Bunn, Mr. Lindermood, Mrs. Conklin and Mrs. Eymann furnished vocal music. The speakers were Hon. James B. Hobbs, candidate for governor, whom the chairman lauded as a very wealthy man; Hale Johnson, candidate for attorney general; W. P. Randolph, candidate for congress; D. H. Harts, candidate for representative, and George C. Christian, the chief stumpster for the third party movement, who has made 73 speeches in various parts of Illinois since last August. Mr. Hobbs doesn't claim to be a public speaker, as he has devoted his life to board of trade or option gambling in Chicago, and has grown wealthy at it; neither does modest Mr. Randolph make any pretensions to oratory, for he is a retired farmer with a fat bank account. The talkers were Christian, Harts and Johnson, and the way they went for the Republican party was enough to lead the casual listener to believe that the meeting was held specially to abuse the party in power. Christian was particularly severe on the Republicans. He is a southerner, lately located in Chicago, and was formerly in the Confederate army. Until a few years ago he was a democrat, and his sympathies are certainly all with that party, into whose arms he would quickly throw were it to win in November. He has everything to gain and nothing to lose. In the course of his statements he declared that there was actually no issue between the two old parties, and tried hard to pound the silly twaddle into the heads of his hearers. He got no applause, except when he told funny stories, at which he is fairly successful. The friends of the cause are satisfied with the meeting and vote it a success.

THE LOCAL FEELING.

The above represents the appearance of all the roosters in the Democratic henery, since the land-slide in Ohio. They will all die off with the cholera Nov. 4th.

The Republican rooster chasing Jack around the old square.

The Confidence Man.

It will be remembered that some weeks ago one George W. Kohn and Berry S. Kyle were arrested on the charge of working the change trick on several of our business men. They had a preliminary hearing and both were committed to jail in default of heavy bail. The friends of Kohn, who reside in Chicago, are taking steps to secure his release. They have money, and if they fail to get the bail required, which is $1800, Daniel Lawrence, of Chicago, a lawyer, arrived in the city last night in the interest of Kohn.

A New $5,000 Residence.

Mr. J. W. Butman, superintendent of the Decatur gas works, is now engaged in putting up a handsome two-story frame dwelling on West William street, between Monroe and Pine streets. The foundations have been laid, and within a few weeks the dwelling will be under roof. It will cost between $5,000 and $6,000, and will be one of the prettiest homes in that part of the city. Krental & Bobb have the contract for the work. The dwelling will have all the modern conveniences.

Going to Nantico.

The Blaine and Logan glee club and martial band will go to Nantico to-morrow afternoon to attend the Republican demonstration and pole raising at that place at night. The speakers will be E. P. Vail, A. H. Mills and others. A big time is expected.

110th, Attention.

All surviving members of the old 110th Regiment Illinois Volunteers are requested to meet at the court house in Decatur, Ill., on Tuesday, October 23rd, at 10 a. m., to transact such business as may come before the annual meeting on that day.

Coup's "Wild West."

The Wild West show at the fair grounds yesterday afternoon attracted what may be termed a large audience for that distance, and the managers, W. C. Coup, W. T. Dowdall and others, captured considerable cash. The admission to the grounds was 50 cents, with an additional charge of 10 cents to the reserved seats on the amphitheatre. The thrilling scenes depicted were the stage coach robbery massacre by Indians, Indian war dance, riding and tying wild Texas steers, riding bucking pony, fight between Indians and cow-boys, races, and 11 other specialties. There was plenty of shooting, and more or less excitement was wrought up to a high state of interest by the realistic scenes. The champion shooter, Capt. E. E. Stubbs, gave a fine exhibition of his skill with rifles and was liberally applauded.

The show will be repeated this afternoon at the grounds. Admission, 25 cts. Children with parents admitted free.

He will stop a few minutes, and address the people from a platform near the depot.

COME AND SEE HIM.

Mr. Blaine's Visit.

Decatur has given patriotic receptions in turn to Lincoln, Grant and Hayes, chief executives of the nation in their days, and now our people will have an opportunity to do honor to another distinguished visitor who will as certainly be elected president of the United States on November 4th as that that day comes on Tuesday. His name is Hon. James G. Blaine, and he will come a week from today, Friday, Oct. 24th, at about the hour of noon. The special train will arrive on the Wabash from the east, and will stop here 20 to 30 minutes.

The various committees are at work preparing for the great event, which will witness a monster turnout of city and country people.

A temporary platform will be erected in the open space south and west of the Union depot building, and around it will congregate the crowd to see the next president and do him honor.

The Art School.

The Decatur Art School will open on Saturday, October 18th, at 9 o'clock a. m., in one of the rooms recently occupied by Miss Phillips' private school on North Main street. Each pupil is expected to be provided with pencil, stretcher, charcoal and charcoal paper. All of which can be obtained at Meyer & Son's, or at the City Book Store. All wishing to take lessons should be present at the opening of the term, if possible. As casts and models have not yet been obtained, pupils are also requested to bring some objects, such as vases, casts, books, flowers, or fruit, or any such objects as they may wish to use as models, and the teacher will then learn the wishes and abilities of each pupil, and advise as to future work. We do not propose (at present) to compete with Meisner in painting heads, or Rosa Bonheur in painting animals, or any of the living masters in landscape, genre, or still life, but expect to commence where those who are now famous commenced in drawing and painting from natural objects, and hope by early spring to be able to show many studies which may be called at least interesting, and to have laid the foundation for excellent work.

ONE OF THE PERITS.

A Big Time.

The Republicans had a rousing good meeting at Mechanicsburg last night, the speakers being Hon. D. T. Litter, Hon. J. O. Conkling and Dr. Karr. There were 64 torches in the procession. The River-ton club of 64 included 49 Irishmen who have heretofore voted the democratic ticket. A free supper was provided for all visiting marching clubs and over 1000 were fed at the tables. Among the Decatur visitors were Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Greening and Charles Jones and his sister. The demonstration outnumbered the democratic rally there several hundred.

The Daily Republican.

New York Tribune: If President Blaine should die, his successor would be a man equal to Chinese Gordon for every emergency. If President Cleveland should die we should bury a bad memory, and it would be succeeded by a man who aided rebels at the North while Logan was fighting them at the South, and a man who has been against every honest effort since the war to defend its results.

JOHN W. McLEAN felt perfectly confident the morning of the election that Ohio would go Democratic. In an article reviewing the prospects he wrote this heading over it:

The Nation Holds Its Breath until It Has Heard the Verdict of Ohio—It will require no Ear-Trumpet to Hear Her Voice To-day, for Even England's Chills will Be-soothed with the Democratic Jubilate—Sherman Felt Chilly in Cincinnati.

In another place it says: "The boom is with the Democrats, and on the side of the Republicans there is fear, anxiety, apprehension, and mortal trepidation."

Carl's Squeak.

Go home, colored men, and learn this political catechism: You are under the American flag to-day. Who put you there? The Republican party. You are in the United States Constitution to-day. Who put you there? The Republican party. You are American citizens to-day. Who made you such? The Republican party. You are eligible to any office of honor or profit in the gift of the Nation. Who made you so? The Republican party. You have the constitutional right to vote to-day. Who gave you that right? The Republican party. You have to-day the right under the law to carry the mail. Who gave you that right? The Republican party. Millions of colored people have been emancipated. By what party was this done? By the Republican party.
